

A JOURNEY OF LEARNING: LIFE LESSONS FROM BUSINESS AND PHILANTHROPY

To celebrate International Women's Day, join students, alumni and local community members to hear MS. KATHLEEN TAYLOR '16 share her insights from a career in leadership and philanthropy. Ms. Taylor is a champion for women and diversity in the boardroom, and became the first female to lead a major Canadian bank as chair of the Board of RBC in 2014. Known for her vision and work ethic, her accomplishments represent a powerful step forward for women in boardrooms. Ms. Taylor holds a Master of Business Administration degree and an Honorary Doctorate of Laws from the Schulich School of Business, a law degree from Osgoode Hall Law School and a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) from the University of Toronto. She also received an Honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Trent during the first Trent University Durham convocation ceremony in June of 2016.

Wednesday, March 8, 2017

4:00 p.m. Presentation

4:40 p.m. Audience Q&A

5:00 p.m. Reception & Light Refreshments

Trent University Durham – Front Atrium
55 Thornton Road South, Oshawa

RSVP online <https://mycommunity.trentu.ca/katietaylor>

#BeBoldForChange

International Women's Day

Accessible versions of this document are available upon request at trentu.ca/accessible